

Life Insurance and AD&D

Life insurance is a cost-effective way to protect your family and your finances. It helps ensure your short- and long-term financial obligations could be met if something unforeseen happens to you.

Why are life and accidental death & dismemberment insurance important?

They are competitively-priced ways to protect your family and finances in the event something happens to you.

For many people, these coverages help ensure that if the unforeseen should happen, short- and long-term financial obligations could be met. If you have a spouse, domestic partner and/or children, they may rely on you to help keep the household running. It's important to take steps to make sure your family would be financially prepared if you were no longer there to handle expenses like:

- Mortgage or rent payments
- Insurance premiums
- Transportation
- Utilities
- Child care/education fees
- Credit card bills

Accidental death and dismemberment benefits (AD&D) can provide financial security should a sudden accident take your life or cause you serious loss or harm. This coverage complements your life insurance coverage and helps protect you 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Q. I already have life insurance through my employer. Why get more?

A. While having some life insurance provided by your employer is a great benefit, chances are it may not be enough to adequately provide for your family now and years from now. Additional life insurance can give your family greater financial security.

Q. How much life insurance do I need?

A. Probably more than you have now. You should keep in mind that insurance needs change as your life changes — for example, getting married, starting a family or purchasing a home. Many people are surprised to learn that they don't have enough life insurance to cover the many expenses their loved ones may face. We've made it very simple to determine the amount of coverage you need now: Go to www.metlifeeasier.net and click on the easy-to-use life insurance calculator to find your answer in minutes.

It's important to review your life insurance needs periodically to ensure that your family is protected.
