Build Smarter Application Forms: Save Time, Screen Faster

Your job posting is the first impression candidates have of your company and the job application is your opportunity to optimize the experience for you and candidates. With Form Builder™, you can craft a branded, streamlined, and mobile-friendly experience that reflects your company's values while making it easier for your team to identify top talent.

Form Builder™ gives hiring teams the control and precision they need to make faster, data-driven hiring decisions, no spreadsheets or back-and-forth emails required.

Why Teams Use It

- Personalize Communication: Send instant, customized replies that maintain a great candidate experience.
- Stay Organized: Use applicant labels to track progress and make data-driven hiring decisions.
- Boost Team Efficiency: Less manual screening means more time for meaningful interviews.

How It Works
